EBENSBURG, PA. THURSDAY MORNING, AUG. 18, 1870. DEMOCRATIC COUNTY TICKET.

Our County Ticket. We promised in our paper of last week that in our present issue we would refer in detail to the several candidates who were placed in nomination by the recent Democratic county convention.

W. HERRICK, RES. The nominee for Assembly, is a native of Johnston and a lawyer by profession. He is "laxative and to the manner born."

CAPT. W. B. BOACKER. The candidate for Sheriff, is a resident of the new borough of Woodville, in the vicinity of Johnston. In 1861 he raised a company of volunteers and was elected its Captain.

JACOB A. HARROLD. The candidate for Coroner, is the candidate for Coroner. He has discharged the duties of that position for the last three years, and will make in the future, as he has in the past, a competent and attentive officer.

ALEXANDER SELLY. He was nominated for Jury Commissioner. Mr. Selly is a comparatively young man and belongs to the old original Democratic stock of the "Skellys" in Summerhill township.

JOHN WAGNER. The nominee for Auditor. Mr. Wagner is a business man and worthy the support of every honest man in the county.

Disappointed Aspirants. On last Monday week there were five prominent Democrats of this county before the Democratic convention for nomination for Assembly.

JOHN PORTER, our late member, was one of the disappointed aspirants. Whether he really desired the nomination or not, we are not prepared to say, but we can safely affirm that no young or old Democrat in the county enjoys more fully the confidence of the Democracy of Cambria than JOHN PORTER, and if he had received the nomination for the third term, he would have been enthusiastically supported.

men, not that they need any eulogium at our hands, but as a simple act of justice to them, and as an expression of what we know to be the feeling of the Democracy of the county towards them.

Potts Declines. On the 25th of June last a mongrel convention assembled in Johnston and nominated Gen. JAMES POTTS, of that place, for Assembly, on the distinct issue of the removal of the county seat from Ebensburg to Johnston.

On the day after the nomination of W. H. ROSE, Esq., by the late Democratic county convention, Gen. Potts was proper to anticipate the future political situation, and addressed a letter to JOSEPH CROUSE, of Johnston, chairman of the executive committee of the removal faction, in which he withdrew from the field.

Gen. POTTS, having thus retired from the position which had been assigned him, the aforesaid JOSEPH CROUSE has issued a proclamation requesting the late removal convention to re-assemble at Cresson on next Saturday, 20th instant, at 2 o'clock, P. M., to nominate a ticket, which we suppose means a full county ticket, in favor of removal.

It was stated in this paper last week that two Radical demagogues in Congress—John Cessna, from the Bedford district in this State, and Lawrence from Ohio—had addressed long letters to the Radicals in Atlanta, "arguing that the intent of the Georgia bill is against an election in November."

Georgia Once More. It was stated in this paper last week that two Radical demagogues in Congress—John Cessna, from the Bedford district in this State, and Lawrence from Ohio—had addressed long letters to the Radicals in Atlanta.

On the 12th inst., Philip R. Mertz, banker, aged 29 years, shot himself through the heart, at his banking house in the city of Pittsburgh. The body was discovered by the woman who cleans out the office.

The Government at Long Branch. It is in perfect accordance with the past political career of Mr. GRANT that he should be juketing at the seaside at the present time.

The Democratic Convention of Huntington county met on yesterday week. The Congressional conferees were instructed to vote for R. MILTON SPEER, Esq., of that county, as the Democratic candidate for Congress from this district.
